Conference Pack 2010

Welcome to the Driftwood Spars, a place offering you a warm and friendly welcome, whatever the time of year.

The building dates back to the 17th Century and has been a hotel and public house for many years. We offer AA -4 star guest accommodation and have achieved a silver award with Taste of the West and in 2009 we were nominated Camra 'Pub of the Year', and in the top ten best coastal bed and breakfasts by Coast magazine.

Whether your looking to hold an informal or formal conference, the Driftwood Spars offers you a quiet, professional yet relaxed and personal environment and approach for all your needs. We also hold breakfast conferences giving you the chance to hold meetings at the start of the day whilst tucking into a nice breakfast.

We offer excellent food using only the best of fresh local produce and this combined with friendly service will ensure all delegates are satisfied.

Following in the pack is all the information on our facilities but if you have any specific requests we will be happy to do our best to meet your requirements.

The Driftwood is located two minutes walk from Trevaunance cove offering spectacular sea views from the dining room

Located 5 minutes off the A30, twenty minutes drive to Truro (Hospital and Train station) forty minutes from Newquay international airport or thirty minutes from Redruth/Camborne area, all times approximate depending on traffic etc... makes us very accessible to all.
